From the President's Keyboard

The Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival is upon us and it takes many people to put on an event this size.

Thank you to Janie Benander, Cindy Nice and Ruthi Hoadley for the time you have put in going to the monthly meetings, getting organized and keeping all of us informed.

Thank you to the guild members who have stepped up to volunteer your time at the opportunity quilt booth, KCRQF pre-sold merchandise booth, will call welcome desk and white gloving.

As of Saturday, May 25, 2019, volunteers are still needed for the following:

- One person on Friday from 10 to 12 for presold merchandise
- One person Saturday from 10 to 12 for presold merchandise
- White glove opportunities
  - 43 slots open on Thursday
  - 42 slots open on Friday
  - 65 slots open on Saturday

If you are available to help out with the presold merchandise booth, contact Janie Benander.

To sign up for white gloving, click on the following link and enter the password (found in the newsletter email). kcrqf.com/white-glove/ Click on the red links on the right side of the page for the day you want to work. Select a time slot that shows openings at the end of each day, then click the sign-up link. Remember, for each shift you work as a White Glove representative you will be entered in the drawing to win a Pfaff Passport sewing machine!

If you haven't purchased your tickets for "An Evening with Ricky Tims", now is the time! There are still great seats available for both evenings -- Thursday, June 13 and Friday, June 14. Tickets and seat selection are available Here.

When the 2019 Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival ends, planning for the 2021 Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival will begin. We are looking for two guild members to be the Olathe Quilters Guild representatives on the Festival committee. Please contact Mary Pacey or me if you are interested.

Have a great time at the Festival!
Teresa Jones, co-president

Coming Up in June

Don't forget the date change for this month We're meeting on June 4th

We will be meeting at the church as usual and having our Salad Supper. We'll be having a potluck of salads, appetizers and desserts. If you did not get a chance to sign up during the May meeting to bring a potluck item, the newsletter email contains a link to an online spreadsheet where you can sign up.

We'll be going over the last minute details about the festival, and then we will have mini demonstrations by guild members.

Come and enjoy a great meal, fellowship with members, get information about the festival and gain some new quilting techniques from the mini demonstrations.

Three demonstrations will be done following the picnic.

1. Mary Pacey will demonstrate the super easy, super fun Bullseye Quilt.
2. Arleen Banks will demonstrate "leaders and enders" and how to make a quilt with (almost) no extra effort.
3. Pam Pearson will demonstrate the Dresden Plate Neighborhood Table Topper

The ladies will provide handouts!

Cheryl Lowrance and Mary Whitchurch
will be the Welcome Table Helpers at our June meeting.

June Workshop Designing Quilts Using Colored Pencils Led by Janie Benander

June 25, 2019 from 6 to 8 pm

Register at

<http://www.johnson.k-state.edu/classes-events/index.html>

See page 3 for a list of remaining 2019 workshops at the JoCo Extension Office

Coming Up Next

Our July guild meeting program will be presented by Amy Bradley

Amy Bradley, master designer and applique artist will be teaching a class for our guild on Saturday, August 3, in Eudora at Quilting Bits and Pieces from 9 to 3.

The cost will be $35. Bring or buy the pattern of your choice to work on with Amy's help and advice!

You can contact Quilting Bits and Pieces if you have a specific pattern in mind. They often work with Amy and may be able to help!

There will be room for 20 people. Get your money to Mary Whitchurch, our treasure, by the June meeting. (Picnic on June 4) After that, the workshop will be opened up for other quilters.

Supply list: sewing machine, pattern of your choice, fabric, matching threads, scissors, fusible, pins, extension cord, and any other supplies you use daily. There will be two irons and two cutting mats available. Since this is a wonderful fabric shop, you can purchase anything you may forget!!

Remaining 2019 OQG workshops at JoCo Extension Office

Following are the remaining dates that have been set in 2019 for Olathe Quilt Guild workshops at the Johnson County Extension office in Olathe. All classes are free and open to the public, and are held from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm. As classes are defined, registration will be available on the Extension's website, on the Classes and Events page, Family & Consumer Sciences (Home and Family) section.

Our Spotlight Quilter of the Month

Joyce Bardeen

I've loved quilts ever since sleeping under my grandmother's quilts during my childhood overnights at my grandparents' house. I learned to sew from my mom and some incredibly patient 4-H leaders, making my clothes and my kids' clothes for years.

My quilting journey began as many do, with the desire to make a quilt for the first baby; that was 1973. After that first quilt, which I made using a pattern in a magazine, with no other instruction, all other needlework went by the wayside in favor of quilting. I did finally take some classes, learned what I was doing right and wrong, met lots of wonderful teachers, bought tons of fabric, and have made lots of quilts. Star patterns are my favorites. Recently I've become fascinated with the modern quilt movement. I've always loved bright colors, batiks and solids, so modern quilts fit that interest.

Along the way I joined a quilt guild in California, helped start the Little Balkans Quilt Guild in Pittsburg, KS and have been part of guilds in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Colorado and North Carolina. I love it all, piecing, appliqué, hand quilting (I'm getting better at machine quilting, but it's not my favorite).

Our 14 grandchildren each have 3 quilts so far. With the two oldest in high school now, I'll be thinking of graduation quilts in a couple more years. I have more ideas than I'll ever be able to complete in this lifetime, so I hope there's quilting in heaven!

Johnson County Fair

Hi Ladies,

It is almost time for the JoCo Fair once again. "Back to Our Roots - 80yrs 1939 - 2019"

Dates are July 29th through August 5th for help with Registration, quilt hanging, monitoring the quilts in the Open Building, take down, and returning quilts to those who brought them in for display.

Tentative dates for clean up of the building and set up would be July 20th and July 27th.

Hopefully there will be more information soon.

I will have signup sheets at the June meeting.

I appreciate all the help you give to make the Quilt Division a success.

See you soon,

Karen Lacy

Charity Projects

The remaining Charity Sew Days scheduled in 2019 will be on Saturdays: July 13, August 10 and October 12. These will be joint meeting times with the Stitchers Group of Olathe Christian Church, starting at 8:30 am, and going until late afternoon. We'll plan on having potluck lunches, more info on that in the July newsletter.

For more info on the charities, go to www.olathequiltersguild.com/charity-information

Workshop update: The Tony Jacobson workshop planned for October has been canceled

Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival

Included with the June newsletter email are four attachments related to KCRQF. Three are festival floor layouts at the OP Convention Center. The fourth contains minutes from the last festival board meeting. Information below is from Janie's notes at the meeting.

We will be going over final details during our June guild meeting. After the meeting, Janie will send out a final update.

1. Still need people to do white glove shifts. Especially, Friday.
2. Only two classes have been cancelled. One was Shari Whitestone – Words that Heal and Micky Dupree's trunk show. NO OTHER classes, lectures, or trunk shows will be cancelled.
3. Preview Night as of Saturday 187 tickets were sold we have a total of 350. It will be a first chance to see the mini quilts, teachers and vendors. If you have books you would like to have autographed take them to Preview Night. You can get a selfie with your favorite teacher. Great music, food and beverages and a chance to shop!! The OPCC has developed a special drink for Preview Night called Drunkard's Path just for the festival. But the bartender wants to use it going forward.
4. If you are working on Preview Night you must be ready to work at 4:30 on Wednesday June 12th. Casual dress code
5. 3 day tickets have to be used only on the day and date on the tickets. Another words you cannot get in on Saturday with a Friday ticket
6. Presold tickets (one day and three day) as of Saturday was appx 700.
7. Ricky Tims will be featured in the Arts and Entertainment section of the KC Star with a color ad and information about the festival on May 25 and June 2
8. Opportunity Quilt booths will be available by 8 am for set up on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The quilts and the cash boxes etc can be stored in a locked room at the convention center as long as they are in a clearly marked container.
9. Judging on quilts will be held offsite where the quilts can be secured on June 11. The judged quilts will be hung Tuesday night or Wed morning. They will be available to be picked up June 15 starting at 5:30. We need to plan to be out of the convention center by 8 to 9 pm on the 15th.
10. We have over 600 quilts that will be on display, 467 quilts are from our Guilds, 7 Challenge quilts, 2 special exhibits, and Judged quilts. We have judged quilts from all over the country.
11. Miami County Guild could use about 10 people from 9 am to Noon on Wednesday June 12th. You must be able to climb a ladder and hang quilts. To volunteer, contact Teresa. Her phone number and email address are included in the newsletter email.
12. On Tuesday June 11 we can ONLY be in the ballrooms, not outside the ballroom
13. Members Directors, Janie and Cindy will received name tags
14. To get your hand stamped to leave and return on the same day to the ballroom go to the Door Prize table at the exit
15. Layout of the ballrooms and opportunity quilt booths etc. is available and will be forwarded by email. See attached.
16. Demonstrations will be held outside the ballrooms. We have a total of 41 demos scheduled. The schedule will be in the Festival Merchandise Booth
17. NO ROLLER BAGS will be allowed in the ballroom.

Committee Updates

18. Wheel chairs and motorized scooters are welcome
19. Strollers WITH A CHILD are welcome
20. The new merchandise that will be on sale during the festival were shown at the meeting. Great coffee cups, special order drink cups that can be personalized, wine sippy cups, water bottles and hot cold cups
21. Merchandise and Presold merchandise move in is on Wed at 7 am. Very specific instructions and car tagging will be required to drop off at the dock
22. There has been a total of appx $5400.00 worth of merchandise sold through May 18
23. Financially the festival is in good shape.
24. Total ticket sales, one day, three day tickets, Ricky Tims tickets sold a total of $37,500.00
25. Festival Show book will be free so pick one up. We have lots of great ad support and all the quilts will be listed in the show book.
26. Each Guild Quilt Coordinator MUST put the entry # on each back of quilts on 2" masking tape. Highly recommend you make the labels and let them dry 24 to 48 hours before putting them on the quilts if you are using a Sharpie. It is possible Sharpies could rub off on another person's quilt. Fold the quilts inside out with the label and Masking Tape with entry # on top. Delivery of quilts will be at the 110th Street entrance under cover in case we have rain.
27. We need a few more machine ambassadors for Bernina, Brother and Pfaff machines to help in the class rooms. If you can assist, please contact Kim Cawthon. Her phone number and email address are included in the newsletter email.
28. We have 243 mini quilts to raise money for Once we Were Refugees and the Sewing Lab. We are thrilled how many quilts were submitted. Additionally, some people's quilts had their buy it now price raised and some were lowered. If someone has an issue with the change please contact Peggy Davis President of the Sunflower Piecemakers Quilt Guild. Her phone number and email address are included in the newsletter email.
29. There WILL NOT be a Frontline Newsletter for June.
30. All vendors will be in the OPCC ballroom by Wed at 2 pm per the schedule
31. Parking email will be sent out to spell out the shuttle and parking lot locations prior to the festival. There are 971 parking spots at the convention center and 134 at Rosanna Square. Black and Vetch parking across from the convention center will be available ONLY on Saturday. Vendors will NOT be parking their trucks and trailers at the convention center, this will help resolve the parking issues we had in the past.
32. Emergency phone number for the Convention Center is 913-713-2525
33. Wi-Fi is free at the convention center so sign in on your phone when you arrive
34. For the Challenge Quilt the Plexiglass we had at previous festivals for display of the winner is not owned by KCRQF so the winner will be displayed with stations and ropes to keep people away from it. This will also make taking pictures of it better
35. Each committee must submit their procedures and timelines BEFORE they will receive their Guild check
36. We have a free ad in the newspaper Coffee News
37. Maps of the convention center could change slightly.....

Olathe Quilters Guild General Meeting Minutes May 14, 2019

President Mary Pacey called the May meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. She recognized our Featured Quilter, Jenny Boudreaux, and invited members with May birthdays to accept a small gift from the Guild. She introduced our guests: Ashley Copeland (daughter of Teresa Jones), Gerry Curry, Betty Jane Kruger, and Joan Carpenter. In addition, she noted that 3 members of the Blue Valley Guild - Lynn Droege, Ibby Rollert and Sandy Magliacano -were in attendance to sell tickets for their Opportunity Quilt. Guest Betty Jane Kruger (also of Blue Valley Guild) announced that there were a few tickets left for celebrity quilter & designer Edyta Sitar's lecture. The event is scheduled for Monday, May 20 at the Johnson County Heritage Center. Tickets are $10.

The business meeting began in order to allow more time for our speaker to prepare & set up.

Mary Pacey requested a motion for approval of the April meeting minutes. The motion was made by Shelia Pierce and seconded by Peggy Anderson. The motion was voted on and passed. A motion to approve the Treasurer's Report was made by Kenda Camp and seconded by Jessie Vandenberg. It was voted and passed.

KCRQF Update –

Janie Benander & Cindy Nice provided an update on our activities for the Festival. Our tasks will be to man the Welcome Desk & Pre-Sold Merchandise booth. In addition, we may also handle sales of the Mini-Quilt Auction. Festival tickets & merchandise sold to our members at our May meeting will be available at the June meeting. All tickets sold at the May meeting will need to be picked up at the Will Call table at the Festival.

Most of the volunteer slots to work the Welcome & Merch Desks are filled, with a couple remaining. Many more white glove volunteers are needed...sign up on the Festival website. Our guild's KCRQF Rep and Alternate for the 2021 festival need to be recruited and on board this summer.

Libby Corrison announced that our Guild's booth (for the Opportunity Quilt & public relations) has most of the volunteer slots filled with just a few remaining.

Susan Gandy announced that our guild will have 22 quilts hanging in the festival. Those who's quilts are entered have been advised via email on how and where to deliver the quilts.

Programs –

Pam Pearson announced that there were a few openings remaining for Stephanie Brandenburg's workshop.

There will be 3 demonstration stations at the June picnic: Arlene Banks "Leaders & Enders", Mary Pacey "Bullseye Quilts" and Pam Pearson & Ava Wright "Dresden Village".

Minutes and Reports

Our July meeting will feature quilt & pattern designer Amy Bradley. She will also conduct a workshop at Quilting Bits & Pieces shop in Eudora on August 3.

Extension Workshops for are now on the website and posted through the end of 2019.

Kathy Kolodziejczyk is coordinating the June Picnic Potluck. She noted the signup sheet at the Welcome Table and asked everyone to bring either a salad, appetizer or dessert that can serve 8-10 people.

Speaker –

Pam Pearson introduced our speaker, Stephanie Brandenburg of Frond Designs in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She gave an interesting account of her journey to becoming a designer and business owner, as well as her take on fabric design.

The meeting adjourned for a social break and to purchase and/or sign up for all the various events and activities offered.

The meeting was called back to order. Mary Pacey announced that we had 57 members and 4 guests in attendance. The winner of the Welcome Table door prize was Jodi Price. Ways & Means drawing winners were: Jelly Rolls – Beverly Berberich, Anna Mae Wagner & Mary Pacey. The blocks were won by Gretchen Ryan.

Those showing quilts at Show and Tell were: Anna Mae Wagner, Gretchen Schafer, Pauline Sanders, Janie Benander, Cindy Nice, Libby Corrison, Kenda Camp, Karen Goodwin, Carolyn Chaffin, Linda Hagen (VA quilts), Melissa Toburen, Karen Lacy (isolette covers) and Sherri Irving (other charity quilts).

There was no other business.

The meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Gandy, Secretary
