Dear Olathe Quilters Guild Members,

As I step down from the responsibilities of president of the Olathe Quilters Guild, I want to give a big thanks to all of you that have worked so hard with me during 2021 and 2022 to ensure that we have a vibrant guild. COVID did not cause us to disband, as some guilds did. We have had our ups and downs but have continued on successfully. Many organizations have incorporated changes that occurred because of COVID, and we are no exception. We are so happy to have added a Tech Committee, so that we can continue to offer Zoom access to our guild meetings. Thank you so much to all of you that have stepped up to take on this responsibility.

Our 2023 board is all set, and our December meeting brings everyone another chance to sign up for all of our committees. We will also allow time for each committee to meet to decide on their chairperson and to discuss details of their responsibilities for next year. Once again, here is the list of committees that are so vital to our successful guild: Block of the Month (if we wish to do this in 2023), Challenge Quilt (if we wish to do this in 2023), Charity, Johnson County Fair (occurring the first week of August), Olathe Guild Manager for our quilts to hang at KCRQF (major responsibilities in February and June), Opportunity Quilt (to handle selling of tickets), Outreach/Education (especially with the K-State Extension Service), President's Quilt, Special Events, Tech Committee, and Welcome Table.

Thank you again for being your friendly, welcoming, creative, exciting, and quilty selves. I am grateful.

Happy Quilting,

Libby Corrison, Guild President

Coming Up

December Speaker Amy Barikman

Amy Barikman is coming back to the December Olathe Quilt guild meeting. We have so many quilting treasures in the KC metro area and are fortunate to have Amy back to speak about Pearl Buttons.

Her lecture: For the Love of Pearl Buttons: A favorite vintage notion from industry to inspiration! is sure to spark your interest. Amy will delve into the fashion to function journey of these notions while sharing the story of the artists who incorporated them into their work. Amy will also be giving us insights to the National Pearl Button Museum which is located in Muscatine, Iowa.

You won't want to miss this one.

Block of the Month

December is Here!

Polka Dot Projects are Presented for Prizes.

Prizes will also be presented at the December meeting

Meeting Minutes

November 8, 2022 Olathe Quilter's Guild Meeting

6:35 pm Lisa Hirsch called the meeting to order in person. There is no Zoom option this evening.

Nic Deplazes handled the business portion of the meeting while waiting for dinner to be set up.

Secretary's Minutes – Melissa Toburen made a motion to accept the secretary minutes from the October meeting as listed in the newsletter. Karen Lacy seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

Treasurer's report – Mary Pacey made a motion to accept the treasurer's report in the newsletter. Mary Ellen Winter seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

Nic Deplazes shared our birthdays for November.

Officer for 2023 – The guild filled the final four positions: Program Elect – Linda Hagen, Ways and Means Elect – Cheryl Wilcox, Historian – Melissa Toburen, and Public Relations – Christie Holmes.

December program – Lisa Hirsch – Amy Barikman, Pearl Button Quilts

Challenge Quilt and Block of the Month – both are due in December. There will be participation prizes.

2023 Board Meeting – the meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 15th on Zoom. The 2022 and 2023 board members are invited to attend. We will be discussing the budget for 2023.

KCRQF – Rachel Rohrer – There will be 4 areas for judged quilts. Our guild members need to bring their quilts for the festival to the February meeting. Volunteers can sign up for any job at the festival. The proceeds will be divided among all guilds. The festival board will be tracking how many members from each guild and how many hours they volunteer to determine how proceeds will be handled in the future.

Committees – please sign up for committees for 2023.

Retreat – Heather Schaller and Karen Genis – the next retreat will be February 24 and 25 at Cedar Lake Village. There will only be one retreat each year going forward.

Meeting Minutes

The members present played 3 games: Never Have I Ever, Word Scramble, and Bingo. There were prizes handed out. Then Lisa Hirsch read The Quilt Maker story to the guild.

There was one guest: Courtney Sappington.

Welcome Table – Linda Hagen – 35 members present – Ana Mae Wagner door prize winner

Membership - Jean Herr – to be eligible for the drawing for free 2023 membership, dues are due December 31st.
