Mark your calendars for next year's Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival!

This festival is sponsored and developed by representatives of 14 guilds in the metropolitan area and is a source of income for the Olathe Quilter's Guild. The 2023 representatives from the Olathe Quilter's Guild are Rachel Rohrer and Jenny Boudreaux, along with Heather Buchwitz as the Co-Chair Elect on the KCRQF Executive Board. They are hard at work right now in preparation for next year's festival!

January 2023 – Drawings for prizes will begin for those who have “liked” KCRQF on Facebook! Follow KCRQF on Facebook and the website for updates and announcements.

January 1 – Class information will be on the website!

January 15th – Tickets, class registration, merchandise sales and early bird tour tickets will be available on the website! Tickets will only be available electronically, so have an email address ready to use when registering. An email will be sent to the email address used in the registration which will contain the QR code needed for entry to the festival. The QR code can be scanned (during entry to the festival) directly from email on a smart phone, a print out of the email, or a screen shot of the QR code.

February 1 – March 31, 2023 - Judged Quilts will be accepted at this time. Details and entry submissions can be found at 2023 Judged Quilt Entries | KCRQF, along with information about the judge. NEW for this festival is the addition of a “Master” category and an “Other” category in addition to the Artisan and Youth categories. There is a space limitation, so enter your quilts early!

March 2023 - Guild Quilts will be accepted by the festival for display during the month of March. Details and quilt specifics can be found at 2023 Guild Quilts Entries | KCRQF. NEW for this festival is that tied or tacked crazy quilts will be accepted! If you wish to participate, please bring your quilt to the February meeting where it will be measured. Traditionally, our guild utilizes a random number selection process while considering with the amount of space dedicated for our guild's quilts. Olathe Quilter's Guild will have four booths at the festival for our quilts. Stay tuned for more details from the KCRQF Guild Quilt Committee!

March – June 2023 - NEW for this festival is that our guild members will have the ability to select any volunteer role they wish to in support of the festival! More details to come!

Updates are happening regularly on the website so save www.kcrqf.com to your browser and stay tuned!
