Dear Olathe Quilters Guild Members,

Big thanks go to Linda Hagen, Cheryl Wilcox, Melissa Toburen, and new member Christie Holmes, who have volunteered to take on the remaining board positions of Program Elect, Ways and Means Elect, Historian, and Public Relations, respectively. Our 2023 slate of officers is now complete! Thank you to all who served in 2022, and everyone who will serve in 2023!

Our November meeting will bring food and fun and games, organized by our Special Events committee, headed by Heather Schaller, as well as our program chair, Lisa Hirsch. Come enjoy!

At the November meeting, everyone will again have an opportunity to sign up for committees. Then, the committees will meet together to decide upon their chairperson and what their plans are for the 2023 year.

We decided not to offer Zoom access for our November meeting. So, come in person to the November meeting if you can. Our December meeting will be at the church as usual with Zoom access offered, and our January meeting will be on Zoom for everyone. Then in February, plan to bring the quilt you hope to have displayed at the KCRQF.

I will be unable to attend the November meeting, as my husband and I will be finishing up our Mediterranean cruise that was originally planned for 2020 and then 2021. We really hope that 2022 will be successful and enjoyable, with no COVID mishaps. I will miss all the comradery and the meal at the November Olathe Quilters Guild meeting, but I know that you will all have a great time.

Happy Quilting,
Libby Corriston, Guild President

Coming Up

Hello Quilters! What a great year we have had in 2022. Thank you for being involved with the Olathe Quilter's Guild and enjoying what we have to offer.

At the November meeting... the plan is to release the majority of the presenters and programming for 2023. We will be having dinner from Greek Cuisine. Have a great meal with friends along with some fun games/challenges/activities. Come hungry and bring your competitive side for some prizes.

Lisa and Heather

An attachment is included with the newsletter containing updates on KCRQF.

Also, a video is available on YouTube (created by our Heather B), providing instructions on how to purchase festival tickets. The plan is for tickets to go on sale January 15. <https://youtu.be/O8pQcNgoyCE>

This video is publicly available on the KCRQF YouTube channel. Guild members are welcome to subscribe to the channel for future videos.

Thank you to all who came to the Retreat!

I had a wonderful time and I hope you did as well. If you have suggestions or comments about what/when we should hold the next one, please let me know.

Heather Schaller

Meeting Minutes

October 11 2022

Olathe Quilter's Guild Meeting

6:35 pm Libby Corrison, President, called the meeting to order. We have 6 people on Zoom.

We have 2 new members, Liz Grandberg-Jerome and Christie Holmes

Lisa Hirsch introduced the speaker, Jean Impey. She has a class Fabulous Faces on October 12th for $40.

There are 3 open slots.

Secretary's Minutes – Heather Schaller made a motion to accept the secretary minutes from the September meeting as listed in the newsletter. Shelia Pierce seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

Treasurer's report – Lisa Hirsch made a motion to accept the treasurer's report in the newsletter. Pauline Sanders seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

Libby Corrison shared our birthdays for October.

Officer for 2023 – The guild is still in need of 4 positions: Program Elect, Ways and Means Elect, Historian, and Public Relations. Lisa Hirsch spoke about the Program Elect position. Melissa Toburen spoke about the Public Relations position.

Vote on 2023 Officers – Karen Lacy made a motion to accept the slate of officers for 2023 that were listed in the Newsletter. Lynda Ochs seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

Retreat – Karen Genis and Heather Schaller – Oct 14 and 15. $30 person which is covering the food. Please sign-up at break.

Celebration in November – Heather Schaller – currently the budget is $250. The guild can maintain this amount and the celebration will be more of a pot luck or the budget could be raised to $500 and we will have a catered dinner.

Mary Ellen Winter made a motion to raise the Special Events budget to $500. Gretchen Ryan seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

The program in November will be games.

KCRQF – Rachel Rohrer – Please think about quilts to enter in the judging or for show. In February, quilts will need to be brought in and a random drawing will happen for which quilts our guild will display. Look to the newsletter for more information.

Suggestions – Member Peggy Bayard made a suggestion of having a scissor sharpener attend a monthly meeting to sharpen our scissors. There would be a cost involved for any who have scissors sharpened. Libby Corrison will look into this for a future meeting.

Meeting Minutes

The guild had member, Adrienne Clevenger, passed away just recently. Should the guild make a donation to the charity of the family's choosing?

Mary Ellen Winter made motion to make a donation of $100 to the charity of Adrienne's choice. Pam Pearson seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously.

Hand Quilters will meet October 20th at 6:30 pm

Membership – Jean Heer – membership for 2023 will begin next month. The cost is $30 for the year. The membership form will be in the newsletter. Please pay before Dec 31st for entry into the lottery for a free membership. Our January meeting will be on Zoom. Dues are due by January 31st.

Kaw Valley Opportunity Quilt is in display. Please visit and purchase raffle ticket.

Welcome Table – Linda Hagen – 42 members present – Ana Mae Wagner door prize winner

Board meeting will be Oct 14th.
